

On Wednesday, Stony Stratford ladies were out for revenge following the previous week's defeat in the "Top Club" by West End ladies and they achieved it comfortably with a win in the friendly match by 84 shots to 51. West End Score were Ann Styles, Pat Costello and Jenny Evans won 21-17. Rita Banks, Pam How and Maxine McLuckie lost 9-29. Pam Miller, Angie Reeve and Adele Farmery lost 11-18 and Wendy Cooper, Joyce Hedger and Brenda Hopcraft lost 10-20.

Score was BWE 51      Stony 84

In the Bucks Plate, after drawing 71-71 with Scot Bowls Club the previous week, the men had a narrow 68-65 win against Newport Pagnell and they currently sit in third place in Division 1.

Saturday saw West End visit Banbury Chestnuts Bowls Club, who founded in 1780, are one of the oldest club in the country. West End came away with a 94-78 win with the rink scores Ann Exelby, David Hamilton and Steve Cornell won 19-18. Pat Costello, Tom Anderson and John Cunningham lost 13-26. Tula Boddy, Keith Hofman and Roger Head lost 12-14. Joyce Hedger, Jim McLuckie and Eric Evans won 21-10 and Herby Taylor, Angie Reeve and Jenny Evans won 29-10.

On Sunday, in a home match shortened by rain, West End beat Bletchley St. Martins by 109-72. Scores for West End were; Moira Head, John Cooper, Alan How and Ian Jones lost 15-20. Herby Taylor, Ann Exelby, Angie Reeve and Mike Briars won 25-12. Tom Anderson, Eddie Holland, Geoff Shaw and Steve Cornell won 24-10. Wendy Cooper Pam How, Mike booth and Arthur Rayner won 21-16 and Pat Costello, Tom Beardon, Colin Boddy and Roger Head won 26-14.