

On Tuesday 13th, Buckingham West End Ladies were at home to local rivals Chandos Park in a friendly triples match. Wendy Cooper, Pam How and Jenny Evan won 20-7 and Pat Costello, Angie Reeve and Lyn East won 25- 10 to give West End a win by 45-17.

On Wednesday, the men played Wolverton Town in a Bucks Plate match. With two triples at home and two away, the home matches were 1 each with Dave Vicentijevic, John Cunningham and Eric Evans winning 23-9 and Jim McLuckie, Ray East and Steve Cornell losing 16-23. Meanwhile, at Wolverton, Keith Hofman, Ian Jones and Roger Head lost 21-13 and Mike Farmery, John Nash and Mike Briars drew 13-13. As a result, with a win overall 66-65 and winning 2, losing 1 and drawing 1, the points were Wolverton 11 and West End 3.

On Saturday, in an away friendly against Wolverton Park, West End lost a close match 69-73. Joyce Hedger, Herby Taylor and John Braxier won 14-11. Tom Anderson, David Hamilton and Brenda Hopcraft lost 12-17. Mike Booth, Angie Reeve and John Cunningham lost 12-17. Ian Roberts, Keith Hopcraft and Joan Brazier lost 13-15 and Eddie Holland, Pat Costello and Steve Cornell won 18-13.

Finally, on Sunday, Woburn Sands were the visitors to West End where the home team won 93 - 61. John Cooper, Jan Roberts, Mike Farmery and Jenny Evans won 19-9. Pat Costello, Eddie Holland, Tula Boddy and Roger Head won 23-9. Moira Head, Tom Anderson, Mike Booth and Arthur Rayner won 23-13. Ian Roberts, Herby Taylor, John Nash and Adele Farmery won 15-12 and Phil Wilkinson, Anne Exelby, Ray Bryant and Eric Evans lost 13-18.